If Leadership Is Your Destination, Do You Have Your Roadmap?

We all have the ability to be extraordinary leaders, but discovering our inner leadership voice is often a complex task. Rawle Howard '96 will make this process unbelievably simple for you by sharing his roadmap to leadership success. Once you receive it, the decision to use it will be in your hands, but with this roadmap, you are almost guaranteed to achieve your greatest leadership aspirations.

Block I Workshops 10:50 - 11:40 AM

Keynote Follow-Up

We invite you to join this small group keynote follow-up discussion with Rawle Howard '96.

Networking Chameleon Style

Effective leaders know that they can't go it alone. Challenge yourself to expand your network of "contacts" to include students, faculty, and alumni. This interactive workshop will focus on building your strong interpersonal communication skills to solicit information and sell yourself. You will also learn how to employ effective techniques and strategies to be more confident and successful.

Rachel Moeller '88, Associate Director, Career Services

Challenge Yourself to Make a Difference

Do you want to help create positive change for your campus or community? Three ambitious Lafayette students will share their experiences with creative community projects of their own design and a Landis Community Outreach staff member will follow-up with Lafayette community service ideas and opportunities that can make you a change agent.

Block II Workshops 11:50 AM - 12:40 PM

Knowing Yourself: Personality and Leadership

Developing an understanding of your personality style can help you make decisions about the activities and leadership roles in which you want to engage. This workshop will introduce you to the five factor model of personality, provide you with feedback about your personality profile, and explore the role of personality in leadership (participants must complete a ten-minute questionnaire at the Office of Student Life programs by February 2).

Kristin Mehr, Counseling Center Doctoral Practicum Student

Transitioning Leadership: Becoming a Leader Within Your Organization

This session is for students who have just taken on or anticipate pursuing leadership positions in groups or organizations. Lafayette alumna, former student leader and current Director of Development and Major Gifts, Beth Nelson, along with several student organization leaders will explore the fine points of becoming a successful leader through smooth transitioning. As a participant, you will be able to share your concerns, questions, stories, and maybe even test your skills!

Picture Me As A Lafayette Trustee!

Have you ever said "I would like to be a Lafayette Trustee someday"? Well, consider it as you hear from two current Trustees of the College about: what Trustees do, why you might aspire to be a Trustee, how you would become one, and how Trustees promote positive change for Lafayette.

Barbara Levy '77, Trustee

Elisabeth MacDonald '81, Trustee

Time Management: Work Smarter, Not Harder!

Effective time management is a critical skill and a KEY to success for college student leaders. Like any other important skill, it is one that you must practice to master. This session will give you strategies on how to plan, organize, and succeed through time management. This workshop will also help you reduce task avoidance and procrastination, find more free time, and generally make your life more productive and satisfying.

Angela Lutzi, Licensed Professional Counselor

Lunch & Alumni Panel Presentation

12:40 - 2:00 PM

Bergethon Room, Marquis Hall

After our buffet lunch, a panel of distinguished alumni will discuss the transition from Lafayette student leader to successful graduate student or professional.

Moderator: Vivienne Felix '03, Assistant Director, Lafayette Annual Fund Panel: Barbara J. Lombardo '83, Partner, Global Learning Solutions Leader; Peter Krass '87, Author, Editor, Lecturer; Jillian M. Gaeta '07, Teacher, Teach for America; Christine Bender '04, Dentist; Frank Campbell Jr. '74, Attorney, Law Office of Frank Campbell.

Block III Workshops 2:10 - 3:00 PM

Alumni Roundtable Discussions

You will have an opportunity to meet with the members of the alumni panel face-to-face for small group discussions. This is your chance to ask them questions and speak with them on a more personal level. You may spend your time with one alumnus or alumna or move from table to table. Sample questions will be provided and LLE student committee members will help facilitate at each round table.
