

The 1999 Lafayette Leadership Institute Conference is a program of the Office of Student Activities made possible by the Class of '68 Leadership Fund.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Activities (610) 330-5337.

9. Cultural Sensitivity: The Sixth Sense The Aspiring Leader Cannot Do Without

This workshop will assist students in identifying cognitive and emotional responses to living, working or traveling in an unfamiliar environment due to differences in race, ethnicity, ability or sexual preference. Come learn how you as a leader can promote individual and group functioning through enhanced cultural sensitivity. Elisha J. Nixon, Assistant Dean of Studies.

3:20-3:25 PM REFRESHMENTS

3:25-4:10 PM BLOCK IV

10. Handling The Stress Of Leadership

Being a leader can be very challenging and stressful. This fun, interactive, and relaxing session will show you how to use the stress to your advantage. Carmen Marsit '00.

11. Finding Time To Lead

How do your time management skills compare to those of campus leaders who have found the balance between academics and activities? This session will focus on techniques to help you get organized, set priorities, and add efficiency to your daily schedule. Staff of the Academic Resource Center.

12. Friend vs. Leader

During this session, you will learn the essential skills needed to be an effective leader among your peers. A variety of methods will be used to explore this crucial balance between friend and leader. Sharon Bogan '99, Tripp Hemphill '99.

4:10-4:30 PM RECEPTION

LAFAYETTE
LEADERSHIP
INSTITUTE
COMMITTEE:

Huldah Adams '00

Autumn Bragg

Associate Director of Alumni Affairs

Pam Brewer

Asst. Dean; Director of Student Activities

Alan Childs

Associate Professor of Psychology

Carrie Damico '00

Student Intern '99-'00

Karen DiBisceglie '00

Brad Dyer '99

Tracy Garnick

Asst. Dean; Advisor to Fraternities and Sororities

John Kelly

Asst. Dean; Director of Multicultural Affairs

Jim Krivoski

Assoc. Dean; Director of Student Life

Leah Parker-Moldover

Residence Life Coordinator Intern

Pamela Perez '99

Matthew Plunkett '99

Student Leadership Intern

Grace Reynolds

Assistant Director of Student Residence

Marvin Roth

Director of Career Services

Trisha Thorne

Community Outreach Coordinator

Melissa Veitengruber '99

Lafayette
Leadership
Institute

LOG ON TO
LEADERSHIP
@ LAFAYETTE
Leadership Conference

February 6, 1999

LOG ON TO LEADERSHIP

@ LAFAYETTE

Conference Schedule

10:00-10:30 AM	REGISTRATION FARRISON 2 ND FLOOR
10:30-11:00 AM	BREAKFAST ICE BREAKER
11:00-11:50 AM	KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Future Leaders of Technology- Can You Keep Up With Your Modems?

John Olivo '84, partner in the law firm of Ward & Olivo and inventor of the "V-chip", will share his views on the importance of technological literacy and the impact such literacy will have upon the future leaders of the next millenium.

11:50-12:00 PM	REFRESHMENTS
12:00-12:45 PM	BLOCK I

1. Keynote Follow-Up

An opportunity to dialogue with Mr. Olivo.

2. Log On To Programming

Leading a group to successful programming can be a major challenge for emerging leaders. This session will take you through the basics and set you firmly on the path to strong events. Topics covered will include reserving rooms, catering, funding sources, publicity, etc. Leah Parker-Moldover, Residence Life Coordinator Intern, Grace Reynolds, Assistant Director of Student Residence Bobbi Kerridge, Assistant Director of Student Activities.

3. Leaders For Change

Through social action and services you can grow as a leader and make a difference in the world. This workshop will explore the crucial leadership skills of identifying problems and needs, creating ongoing programs, communicating your vision and motivating others. Mary Beckman, Associate Professor of Economics and Business; Trisha Thorne, Community Outreach Center Coordinator; Mark Palmeri '02.

4. Student Leadership: Some Puzzling Cases

Leadership can involve difficult choices. The purpose of this workshop is to highlight this feature through the presentation of hypothetical cases, and to explore possible ways in which these cases might be resolved. The cases will raise questions such as: What is more important--self-interest or fulfilling one's leadership role? What should the leader do after making promises that seem impossible to fulfill? Owen McLeod, Assistant Professor of Philosophy.

12:45-1:00 PM	REFRESHMENTS
1:00-1:45 PM	BLOCK II

5. Alumni Panel Discussion

Our diverse panel of recent alumni will discuss how their college experiences helped prepare them to enter the world of work and advanced academia.

Moderator: Mary Roth '83, Assistant Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering. Panel: John Olivo '84,

Partner, Ward & Olivo, Jim Bracey '97, Financial Consultant, CIBC Oppenheimer, Malika Browne '94, Assistant Director of Admissions, Lafayette, Cindi Combi '90, Senior Process Engineer, Mobil Chemicals, Ross Gay '96, Ph.D. Candidate in Literature, Temple, Rick Klau '93, Vice President of Marketing and Development, Trial Net, Inc.

1:45-2:30 PM	LUNCH WITH ALUMNI
2:35-3:20 PM	BLOCK III

6. Your Spoken Image

Successful leadership can depend on how well you express your thoughts and ideas. How you communicate verbally sends a message about you. This workshop will explore creative techniques for enhancing your "spoken image." Tracy Garnick, Assistant Dean of Students, Advisor to Fraternities and Sororities.

7. Beating The Burnout: Leadership Survival 101

How can you get the most out of your college experience without letting it get the best of you? Get advice from established student leaders on how to get involved, diversify c ommitments, and stay motivated. Melissa Veitengruber '99, Renaldo Trancoso '99, Shayne Figueroa '99.

8. Technological Tools For Leadership

Many of today's most successful leaders are plugged in and turned on to technology. We'll show you how to master your email, wrestle the web, put power in your PowerPoint, and more. Patricia A. Facciponti, Instructional Technologist.

